A holistic approach to speaking & singing with Dr. Madeline Miskie-Jaeger

April 2nd - 4th, 2020

3201 Mountain Highway
North Vancouver

Whoever you are, where ever you're at, there's a place for YOUR voice here!

Lynn Valley Voices Community Choir hosts Dr. Madeline Miskie-Jaeger, voice professor for Catholic University (Washington, D.C), in a three part workshop in finding our Confident, Authentic Voice.

Learn how to increase your self-awareness to lead to increased confidence in all forms of vocal production and presentation. This three-part workshop on April 2- 4th 2019 is for all singers and choir participants; whether you are a seasoned pro or a new to singing choir member. Each of the sessions will focus on different aspects of vocal production – calm breath, grounding of mind & body; release and resonance; and mindful movement for singers.

As an added bonus, participants who register for the full workshop will receive complimentary tickets to Friday Night Live's presentation of Songscape Duo, with Madeline Miskie-Jaeger and Frank Chu. They will perform a variety of works from German and Russian Art Songs, to a new song cycle by Timothy C. Takach and various musical theatre numbers.
