Where

- You (your choir members, your board members, parents and/or supporters) sell your raffle tickets in your town, and/or online, to your audiences, friends, families, singers, supporters

Why

- BCCF administers and manages this Raffle for you (your choir avoids all the BC Gaming paperwork!)
- The collective power of many small groups working together allows us all to win!
- BCCF helping our member choirs raise funds for: music purchases; equipment purchases; professional fees
- Funding individual choirs AND programs/services offered by the BCCF – we all win together!

How

- Ensure that your choir's BCCF membership is up-to-date
- Appoint a single raffle administrator from within your organization
- Determine how many tickets your choir could sell (if your choir sells 200 tickets, your return is $600)
- Complete the attached contract and return to the BCCF by February 25, 2023
- April/May – sell your tickets
- June 1 – all stubs, unsold tickets, monies must reach the BCCF
