

BCCF RAFFLE 2024 • VERY TIMELY DETAILS

Sell easily online with e-tickets. (And paper too!)

October 2, 2023 — TO ALL BCCF CHOIRS

One of the common questions to us is “What can BCCF do for our choir?” - and this is something significant. We don’t have money to hand out, but we can help you access it through the Gaming Branch, with all the licensing and administrative stuff done for you. Choirs can do their own events, but through BCCF we can help you reach much further afield in your sales than you might be able to do alone.

This year we’re back on track with the Raffle, scheduling it for next spring, so that the timeline reverts to the one we used before Covid hit us in 2020. We are not limited to a Chorifest draw date, since the draw is electronic, and we don’t need to allow quite so much time to receive and process tickets, since most of the work is done online. Where we will diverge from “the old timeline” is that the contract deadline will be mid-fall, so we can do our sales earlier in the spring.

So the proposal is

- Raffle contracts to be in by Friday 10 November 2023
- Application will be made to Gaming by Friday 17 November; a Class A licence requires 10 weeks notice
- Tickets out to choirs in the last weeks of January 2024
- Selling window 1 February – 12 April 2024 (10 weeks)
- Saturday 12 April online ticket sales close; any paper tickets must already be returned
- Draw Monday 22 April, 2024
- First pay-out by end of April; final payout a.s.a.p, depending on choirs getting paperwork to the BCCF office.

All the relevant information is up on the BCCF website at www.bcchoralfed/raffle

- the contract

Please take this letter to your choir board and ask them to give some thought to participating. This is a no-risk, low-labour venture – participating choirs take 60% of the gross, and from the remaining 40% BCCF does all the administration and funds the CASH PRIZES. In fact, this is more a fundraiser for choirs than for the BCCF!

We are going to repeat the formula from the past fall – tickets are $5 each, or you can buy a “deal” package of 5 tickets for $20. If you opt for an all-electronic version, there is no handling cash or tickets; the choir coordinator’s job is just to remind participants to sell. For choirs that want it, paper tickets are available (with the concomitant extra work!) or you can opt for a hybrid model. We suggest that you initially decide what income you want to bring in, and work with me to put together a ticket combination that will do that. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact me. If you’ve not done the online raffle before, I can put you in touch with one of the choir coordinators, who can tell you how easy it can be!

I will look forward to hearing from you by Friday 10 November.
