

Salt Spring Island United Church seeks a creative and technically competent person to assume choral and keyboard music leadership in their faith community. The congregation places emphasis on engaging worship experiences and is active in social justice initiatives. The ideal candidate should have good keyboard skills, preferably both piano and organ, choral directing skills and experience, along with familiarity with worship as expressed within the United Church. The selection committee is interested in applications from individuals who may have experience in some but not necessarily in all of these areas. The individual should also possess good interpersonal skills since they will be directly participating in church life. Remuneration will be commensurate with experience and qualifications as outlined in the current Royal Canadian College of Organists (RCCO) Table of Recommended Salaries.

Please reply in confidence prior to April 15, 2024 with a resume and cover letter, including the names and contact information of two references to secretary@saltspringunitedchurch.org . For more information, including a detailed position description, please visit the church's website at <https://saltspringunitedchurch.org/>