

1. The BCCF will organize and administer this raffle in accordance with current B.C. Gaming Commission regulations.
 2. Schedule as follows:
 - December 13, 2026 - Deadline: signed contracts sent to BCCF; BCCF then applies for licence.
 - Mid-February 2027 - Tickets sent to choirs
 - Feb 22 – June 7, 2027 – selling window
 - June 7, 2027 - Deadline: All sales end
 - June 30, 2027 - Prize draw held online
 - July 14, 2027 - Cheques out to choirs for their 10% commission
 - July 25, 2027 - Deadline for submission of choir invoices for balance of proceeds
 3. Participating choirs must be BCCF members in good standing throughout the project.
 4. Participating choirs will contract to sell a specific number of single tickets at $5 each and/or of composite 5-ticket “specials” at $20. They will use electronic means to sell tickets. There is no minimum, but the more tickets sold, the more the choir makes.
 5. Deadline for returning signed contracts is Sunday, December 13th, 2026. The raffle will only take place if a minimum of 10,000 tickets are contracted. Prizes awarded will be cash and will range from $100 to at least $2,000.
 6. The BCCF will appoint an administrator for this raffle. Each participating choir will appoint a responsible representative to liaise with the BCCF Raffle Administrator, who will also offer assistance as needed for dealing with RaffleNexus tracking. Electronic tickets are tracked digitally, so no action is required by the choir.
 7. The draw will take place via the RaffleNexus Random Number Generator on June 30th, 2027.
 8. On or before July 14th, 2027, the BCCF will return to the choirs 10% of remitted funds, allowed as commission. The other portion of the proceeds (50%) owing to the choirs will be paid out upon receipt of an invoice for reimbursement, showing how the money will be/has been spent. The BCCF will pay all prizes and other related expenses from the 40% it retains.
- NB: Minors are not permitted to sell or to purchase raffle tickets under Class “A” licence regulations. Tickets may only be sold within BC.
